COURSES OF INSTRUCTION

A. Courses leading to the degree of Bachelor of Music

The Faculty of Music offers two three-year residence courses each leading to the degree of Bachelor of Music (Mus.Bac.): the course in General Music and the course in Music Education.

The course in General Music provides professional training in the theoretical aspects of music with specialization in either Composition or History and Literature of Music. Students in this course are prepared for a variety of careers for which a foundation in general musicianship is essential.

The course in Music Education stresses the practical aspects of instrumental and choral training which supplement theoretical and academic core subjects. It provides for the preparation of teachers of music in the schools with special emphasis on secondary school work. Graduates who desire to qualify as teachers of music in schools must spend a session at a teacher-training institution such as the Ontario College of Education (for secondary schools) or Teachers' College (for public schools). Full information regarding the requirements for admission to these institutions may be found in either the calendar of the College of Education, 371 Bloor Street West, Toronto, or the pamphlet "Teaching in the Elementary Schools" obtainable from the Ontario Department of Education, Parliament Buildings, Toronto.

B. Courses leading to the Artist and Licentiate diplomas

The Faculty of Music offers two three-year residence courses leading to the Artist and Licentiate diplomas of the Royal Conservatory of Music.

The Artist Diploma course is designed to provide the necessary training for especially gifted singers, instrumentalists, organists, and composers who are sufficiently advanced to be able to prepare themselves, under the guidance of artist teachers, for a professional career.

The Licentiate course (in piano, violin and voice) combines vocal or instrumental training with specialized instruction in pedagogy and practice teaching to prepare the graduate for a career as a private teacher.

C. Course leading to the degree of Bachelor of Arts

The Faculty of Music, through the Faculty of Arts, offers instruction in a four-year residence course with honours in Music, leading to the degree of Bachelor of Arts (B.A.). This course provides comprehensive training in musical craft, but emphasizes the historical and esthetic aspect of the musical experience. It contains liberal exposure to the sister arts, especially languages, and constitutes an excellent preparation for graduate studies in Musicology. Information regarding content and requirements for admission may be found in the calendar of the Faculty of Arts.

D. Courses leading to the degree of Master of Music

The Faculty of Music, through the School of Graduate Studies, offers residence courses leading to the degree of Master of Music (Mus.M.). The student will do advanced work in one of the following fields of concentration: Composition, History and Literature of Music (Musicology), Theory, or Music Education.

E. The Degree of Doctor of Music

The Faculty of Music provides examinations for the degree of Doctor of Music (Mus. Doc.) which is awarded through the School of Graduate Studies. It does not, however, provide instruction in the subjects covered by examinations.

Equivalent Certificates

The following certificates of examinations recognized as equivalent in value to the Ontario Grade XIII certificate, generally known as Senior Matriculation, may be accepted in so far as they meet the admission requirements of the University of Toronto in subjects and percentages and conform to the admission requirements of the universities of the respective provinces. A candidate applying for admission on such certificates must submit an official statement of the marks upon which these certificates were awarded.

New Brunswick, Newfoundland, Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island—Senior Matriculation certificate of the Common Examining Board or of their respective Departments of Education. Third Year certificate of Prince of Wales College or First Year Memorial University are also accepted from Prince Edward Island and Newfoundland respectively.

Admission of Mature Students

A candidate of mature age (twenty-five years or older on October 1st of the session to which admission is sought) may request special consideration if he or she has not completed in full the published Grade XIII (or equivalent) requirements. Such an applicant must submit a birth certificate at the time of application.

Admission to Advanced Standing

A candidate for admission to the General Music course who is the holder of the Associate diploma of the School of Music of the Royal Conservatory of Music of Toronto in any musical subject and who has obtained honour standing in each of the theoretical papers for that diploma, may apply for admission to the second year. If admitted, the candidate will also be required to obtain standing in English 1a and 1b, and Physics 8 or their equivalent under conditions to be prescribed by the Council of the Faculty of Music.

A candidate applying for advanced standing must submit his application to the University Registrar at as early a date as possible and not later than September 1st together with the certificates listed in (a) on page 9 and a statement of the School of Music of the Royal Conservatory of Music showing that he has obtained the Associate diploma with the required honour standing in the theoretical papers.

A student who has failed to obtain standing in the first year of the General Music course shall thereby forfeit his future right to advanced standing based on the Associate diploma.

An undergraduate of another university may be admitted to advanced standing on such conditions as the Senate on the recommendation of the Council of the Faculty of Music may prescribe. Such an applicant must submit with his application for admission (1) his matriculation certificates; (2) an official transcript of his record in the university from which he wishes to transfer showing in detail the courses which he has completed with his standing in each, and showing that he has been granted honourable dismissal; (3) a calendar of the university giving a full description of the courses taken.

Admission to advanced standing in the Music Education course is granted only under exceptional circumstances.

B. Diploma Courses

A candidate for admission must submit his application to the Secretary of the Faculty of Music at as early a date as possible and not later than September 15.

Candidates for admission must submit evidence of the completion of a standard four-year high school course or a satisfactory equivalent.

Admission to the Artist Diploma Course is determined only by an examination in performance. This examination for the session 1958–59 may be taken at the Royal Conservatory of Music in Toronto on May 20 and 21, 1958, or on September 16 and 17, 1958. The requirements are as follows:

(b) Theory. While no definite requirement in Theory is made for admission to diploma courses, candidates are strongly urged to obtain a minimum standard of Grade II Theory and Grade III Harmony of the School of Music of the Royal Conservatory of Music.

Licentiate Diploma Course

Admission to the Licentiate Diploma Course is determined either (a) by an examination in performance as above or (b) by the successful completion of the practical requirements for the Associateship Diploma of the Royal Conservatory of Music (A.R.C.T.) plus at least Grade II

Theory and Grade III Harmony. An applicant who wishes to apply under the regulations of section (b) should submit the necessary documents at the time of filing his application for admission.

A student whose attendance at lectures or laboratories, or whose work, is deemed by the Council of the Faculty to be unsatisfactory, may have his registration cancelled at any time by the Council of the Faculty.

4. Physical Education

By order of the Board of Governors each first year student in a degree course must register for, and satisfactorily complete, the University requirement in Physical Education. This requirement includes a medical examination by the University Health Service. Each year of failure to fulfil the regulations renders the student liable to a special fee of $50.00.

Exemptions: (1) one year's satisfactory standing in physical education at this or any other University (2) if age is 30 years or more (3) ex-military service (4) completion of one year's course in the U.N.T.D., C.O.T.C. or U.R.T.P. (5) exemption by the University Health Service (6) special consideration.

5. Standing in the Year

To obtain standing in any year, a candidate may not fail more than two subjects, provided that the total number of hours does not exceed six in the subjects conditioned. A candidate who is conditioned at an annual examination in a subject indicated in italics in section V, pp. 22 to 31 must obtain standing in this subject at the supplemental examination in order to be eligible to enrol in the next higher year. Not more than one subject may be carried as a condition into the next higher year. A candidate must obtain complete standing in the First Year before he may register in the Third Year.

The Viva Voce examination in the Second Year of the Music Education Course is not considered a subject in determining the candidate's standing in the year and supplemental examinations may be arranged as required.

A student failing to obtain standing in a year's work will be permitted to repeat the year only once unless special permission is granted by the Council of the Faculty of Music.

A student who has twice failed the work of his first year at this or another university shall not be granted admission to any course.

6. Standing in a Subject

To receive credit in any Music subject, a candidate must obtain at a final or supplemental examination at least sixty per cent of the examination mark and at least sixty per cent of the aggregate of the term and examination marks.

To receive credit in an Arts subject, he must obtain at least fifty per cent at the final examination in the subject as well as fifty per cent of the aggregate of the term and examination marks. In order to obtain standing in English in any year, a candidate must obtain at least fifty per cent in the term work as well as at least fifty per cent at the final examination. A candidate whose term mark in English in any year is less than fifty per cent must obtain a satisfactory term mark in a subsequent academic year under conditions to be determined by the staff concerned, and subsequently must pass a supplemental examination in the subject.

A student in either Diploma course, who has been granted credit in a prescribed subject or subjects in the regular curriculum, may petition the Council for permission to substitute other subjects in their stead.

Failure to obtain standing in such subjects may make it necessary to repeat the course during a subsequent session. In some cases this would mean the student would be debarred from entering the next higher year until the condition was removed.

(b) Diploma Courses

The annual examinations will take place at the Royal Conservatory of Music of Toronto beginning on May 8. Supplemental examinations will be provided in September.

A student may, in addition to the examination, be given the opportunity of presenting a recital if recommended by his teacher.

Each student in the Second Year will be required to present a recital during the academic year, this recital to be evaluated by examiners and the results considered with those of the student's other subjects.

Singers will be assigned from time to time, at the discretion of the director, to perform at classes in Accompanying.

VII. GENERAL INFORMATION

Students in the Faculty of Music have at their disposal the facilities of both the University of Toronto and the Royal Conservatory of Music. The main buildings of the Conservatory are centrally located adjoining the University campus.

Instruction in academic subjects is given by the staff of the Faculty of Arts, largely at University College. Music courses and individual lessons are given by the staff of the Faculty of Music at the Royal Conservatory.

The Conservatory main building, together with its adjoining annexes, contains the administrative offices, classrooms, eighty-two studios for teaching and practice, three practice organs, the Concert Hall and Recital Hall, two lecture halls, the library and listening room, a music sales counter and a cafeteria.

The Library has an extensive collection of books, scores, periodicals, and reference material, while the Faculty of Music maintains separate libraries of chorus, band, and orchestra music. The listening room is equipped with seven turntables with earphone attachments so that students may take advantage of the large collection of phonograph recordings.

Modern audio-visual equipment including phonographs, tape recording machines, and film projectors is used in teaching. The Faculty owns over 100 string, woodwind, brass, and percussion instruments for the use of students in music education classes.

The Concert and Placement Bureau arranges concerts across the Dominion for the Conservatory's leading students and recent graduates, both singers and instrumentalists. Requests are filled for oratorio and operatic soloists, choristers, organists, accompanists, and musical performers in all categories. The Bureau also fills teaching positions and arranges for summer employment.

Students may take advantage of the varied activities of the University and Conservatory including lectures, recitals and concerts, dramatic productions, and athletic and social events. Valuable performing experience may be gained through membership in the University and Conservatory Symphony Orchestras, the University Chorus, as well as through professional organizations such as the CBC Opera Company the Opera Festival, and the Mendelssohn Choir.

The musical season in Toronto provides an unusual opportunity to hear outstanding organizations and artists; performances of the Opera Festival and Toronto Symphony Orchestra being of special note. Arrangements can be made for special reduced rates of admission for many musical events.

The Undergraduate Association of the Faculty of Music

The Undergraduate Association is the official undergraduate organization in the Faculty of Music.

The object of the Association, as stated in its Constitution, is "to promote the interests of undergraduates in the Faculty of Music, to cultivate relations between the faculty and the student body, to encourage the participation of the student body in University activities, and to further goodwill among the members themselves."

The officers are elected annually and consist of the President, the Vice-President, the Secretary, the Students' Administrative Council representative and an Executive Committee composed of members representing each year and course. One member of the faculty is chosen annually by the officers of the Association to act as an adviser to the Association.
